The Jain Mutt at Humcha in the Sagar Taluk has applied for the grant of a Rahadari specifying the honours to which it is entitled. It has not produced any Sannad or other authority proving the grant of any particular honours to it, nor has it produced any evidence of enjoyment of specified insignias. The only documents it has submitted are copies of three Rahadaris said to have been issued by the authori-authorities of Mangalore and Kanara Districts and of an order issued from the Harihar Taluk. The communication from the Harihar Taluk has no bearing upon the question of honours to this Mutt as it refers only to the kind of belts and badges that might be permitted to be worn by the servants of the Mutt. Of the three Rahadaris, two do not refer to any of the honours specifically and they mention only some items of processional paraphernalia which the Swamis of this Mutt appear to have taken with them in their tours on certain occasions. The only Rahadari which refers to some honours is that of the Treasury Deputy Collector, Mangalore, dated 29th February ~~1912~~ 1912 and this cannot be considered as carrying much weight in the consideration of the question as to what honours should be allowed to the Mutt within the State.

There are only three important Jain Mutts in the State, viz., those at Sravanabelagola, Humcha and Narasimharajapur, and it is only the Sravanabelagola Mutt that has been allowed any honours at all. Whatever its standing in the past, the Humcha Mutt cannot now claim to be as influential or important as the Sravanabelagola Mutt. The Humcha Mutt, however has claimed a number of honours not enjoyed by the Sravanabelagola Mutt, including Pallakki with Pancha-Kalasa, Sveta Chatri and Elephant with Ambari.

The Sravanabelagola Mutt is honoured by

Jains

Jains throughout India and it is endowed with four Inam villages in the State, besides some other minor Inams. The Humcha Mutt has neither cash nor land inams endowed to it. There is a temple in the Humcha Mutt which is endowed with a Malnad cash grant of Rs 52-6-0 per annum and a free grant of 1½ maunds of sandalwood. The honours that might be allowed to the Humcha Mutt should, in these circumstances, be less than those allowed to the Sravanabelagola Mutt. The Muzrai Commissioner has recommended that all the honours asked for by the Mutt excepting only Pallaki with Pancha Kalasa might be allowed to it. The acceptance of this recommendation would mean the grant of more honours to the Humcha Mutt than those allowed to the Sravanabelagola Mutt and I do think this recommendation can be accepted.

The Sravanabelagola Mutt has been allowed the following honours:-

1. Sada Pallakki.
2. Sweta Chatri.
3. Makara Thorana.
4. Chamara.
5. Aftagiri
6. Morchalu

Sweta Chatri is one of the high honours and it need not be allowed to the Humcha Mutt. The other honours have been conferred upon many other Mutts and the Humcha Mutt may also have them. The necessary articles of processional paraphernalia which are not Royal or Special Honours, may, of course, be used by the Mutt.

Grant of Honours to the Jain Mutt at Humcha.

The Jain Mutt at Humcha in the Nagar Taluk has applied for the grant of a Ranadari specifying the honours to which it is entitled. This is one of the three important Jain Mutts in the State, though it cannot claim to be as influential or important as the Mutt at Sravanabelagola which is honoured by Jains throughout India and is also endowed with four Inam villages in the State. The following are the honours enjoyed by the Sravanabelagola Mutt:-

1. Sada Pallaki.
2. Sweta Chatri.
3. Makara Thorana.
4. Chamara.
5. Aftagiri.
6. Morchalu.

2. Sweta Chatri is one of the high honours and it need not be allowed to the Humcha Mutt. The other honours have been conferred upon many other Mutts and may be allowed to the Humcha Mutt. The Council has agreed to this proposal and it may be graciously approved.

Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

SIR,

Referring to your letter No.2366/M.F.106-26-2 dated 25th May 1927 forwarding for disposal -- the application of the Swamigalu of the Jain Matha at Humcha in the Nagar Taluk requesting the grant of a Pahadari, I have the honor to forward herewith copy of letter No. Muz.1-1444/27-28 dated 21st April 1928 from the Deputy Commissioner ~~Shimoga~~ Shimoga District ~~District~~, recommending the grant of a formal Rahadari to the present Swamigalu authorsing him to display the insignia noted in the list furnished by the late Swamigalu with his application referred to above and to state as follows:

2. The matha is of great antiquity and a kind reference to pages 461-62 of Vol.I and pages 455-56 of Vol.II of the Mysore Gazetteer is invited about the origin of this matha which at one time was one of the most important Jaina foundations within the State. It has still a large number of followers though the community is dwindling as a whole. The succession of Ved. Chinna Thambi Nayanar to the Peeta was recently ---- recognized by Government in their order No.2168-71/M.F.136-27-7 dated 26th May 1928.

3. The insignias claimed by the matha have been classified under the several heads under the authority of Government Order No.1521/M.F. 249-25-2 dated 29th May 1926 and a statement showing the classification so made is enclosed for convenience of reference. The only other --

Jain Matha to which a Pahadari has already been granted is the matha at Sravanabelagola. The insignias claimed by the former and those allowed to the latter are shown in juxta position in the statement. Barring ordinary insignias, the claim of the Kumcha Matha are in excess of those allowed to Sravanabelagola matha in so far as the - following Royal and special insignias are concerned.

ಕೈಕಾಲಿಕ್ಕೆ ಕಾಲಿಕ ಪಂಚ ಕಳಶ
ಸಿಬಿಕೆ ಪಾನ
ಅಂಬಾರಿ ಆನೆ
ಕೊಂಬು ಪಾಡ್ಯ
ಪಂಜಿನಪಾಡ್ಯ

The Deputy Commissioner recommends the grant of all these - insignias in addition to

ಕೈಲಕ್ಕಿ
ಮರಕೀಲರಣ
ಉಭಯ ಚಾಮರ
ದಿವಾ ದೀವಟಿಕೆ

as they are included in the Pahadari granted by the Treasury Deputy Collector of Bangalore on 29th February 1912 (vide copy enclosed in the records.)

The question of ದಿವಾದೀವಟಿಕೆ (Day torch) does not at all arise now as this is not mentioned in the list submitted by the matha. As the remaining three insignias, viz., ಕೈಲಕ್ಕಿ, ಮರಕೀಲರ ಉಭಯ ಚಾಮರ together with ಸಿಬಿಕೆ ಪಾನ have been allowed to the Sravanabelagola and several other mathas of the same standing there seems to be no objection in conceding their use to the Huncha Matha.

4. As regards the other five, it seems to me that mere fact that the matha enjoys the honors in British India does not give ~~irrevocable~~ it any title to the same in the Mysore State. There is no doubt that the Secretariat compilation of honours makes mention of all these insignias and a few others also but this compilation does not seem to be an - authoritative one as it has not been formally approved by Government.

Palanquin with Panchakalasa is a Royal honor and its use is permitted only under exceptional circumstances and that too as a special case.

Ambari with Panchakalasa on elephant has been classed as a Royal Honor, but in the present instance a simple ambari on elephant is claimed. The use of such an insignia has been permitted in the case of the Sri Uttaradi Matha (vide Pahadari No. 1621/M.F.304-14-5

The other three insignias, viz., పల్లకీ & పల్లకీ దండ్ and పంచ మహా వాద్య though classed as Royal and special honors, yet have been in the enjoyment of several mathas, e.g., Bale-honnur, Ujjini, Tiruvalangadu Yelanadu (only పల్లకీ), Nidumamudi (only పల్లకీ దండ్ & పంచ మహా వాద్య) and other mathas.

5. Having regard to the above and the antiquity and importance of the matha, I beg to recommend that the right to display the --- insignias mentioned in the list with the exception of Palanquin with five Kalasas may be conceded to this matha. On receipt of Government orders, a Sahadari in the usual form will be issued.

6. The file of vernacular papers is enclosed for reference - and kind return.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

It will -- be seen from the records that the Matt has no documents in its possession authorising the use of the several Birudus which it claims to have been displaying unchallanged both in and outside the state from a long time. The Amildar reports that the important Birudus refered to in the list given by the agent viz. Sweta chatri, Makaratorana, Ubhayachamara, Pallakki with Panchakalasa and others are to be found in the Matt. The records also contains copies of certain Rahadaries obtained by the Matt while - touring in the British Territories which make mention of the*marginally noted insignias. The Matt authorities have stated that the institution has got a large number of Jina Disciples in the Bombay and Madras Presidencies as well as in Mysore. In the ------ circumstances I would recommend the grant of a formal Rahadari to the Swamigalu authorising the Matt to display the insignias noted in the -- list."
